COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Dedication

Those who bring Sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.—Sir James Barrie

*We dedicate this yearbook to Marie Cunningham in appreciation of everything she has done for everyone.
Thank you, Marie!*

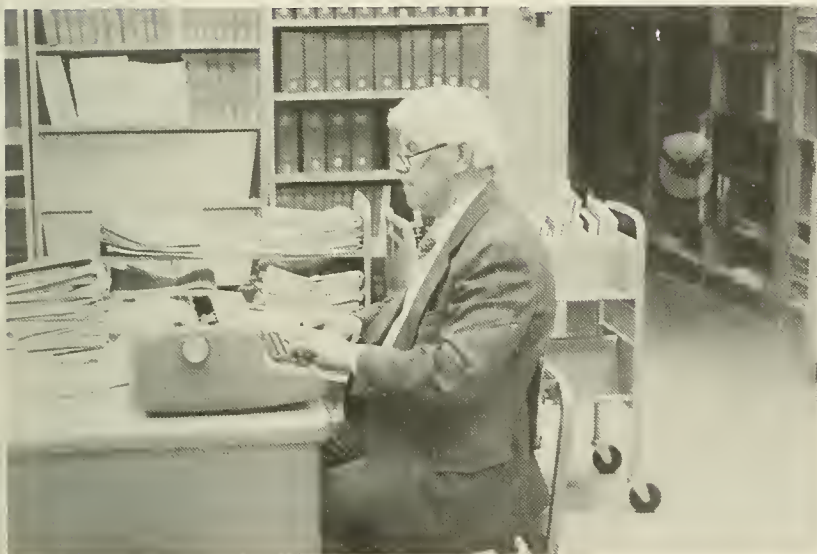

Ulysses (Tennyson)

I am become a name;
For always roaming with a hungry heart
Much I have seen and known—cities of men
And manners, climates, councils, governments
Myself not least, but honored of them all—
And drunk delight of battle with my peers,
Far on the ringing plains of windy Troy.
I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethrough
Gleams that untraveled world whose margin fades
Forever and forever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use!
As though to breathe were life! Life piled on life
Were all too little, and of one to me
Little remains; but every hour is saved
From that eternal silence, something more,
A bringer of new things; and vile it were
For some three suns to store and hoard myself,
And this grey spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge like a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought.

CITIES OF MEN AND MANNERS, CLIMAX, COUNCILS, GOVERNMENTS . . .

MYSELF NOT LEAST, BUT HONORED OF THEM ALL

AND DRUNK DELIGHT OF BATTLE WITH MY PEERS . . .

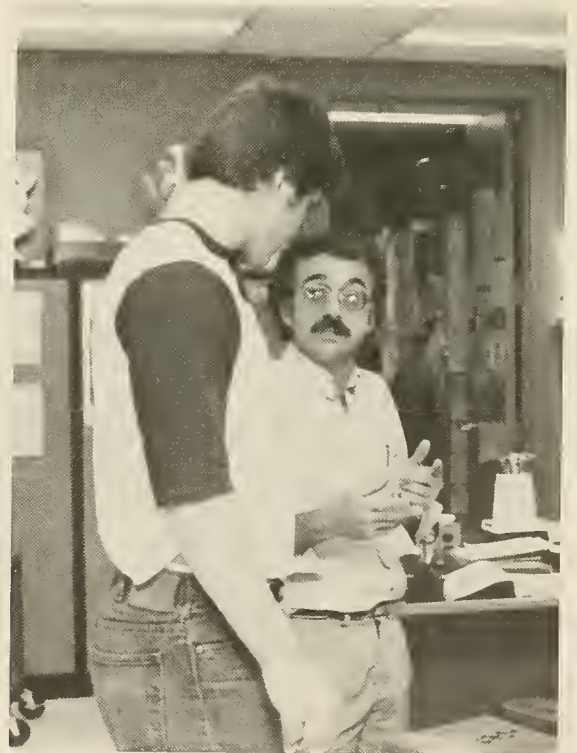

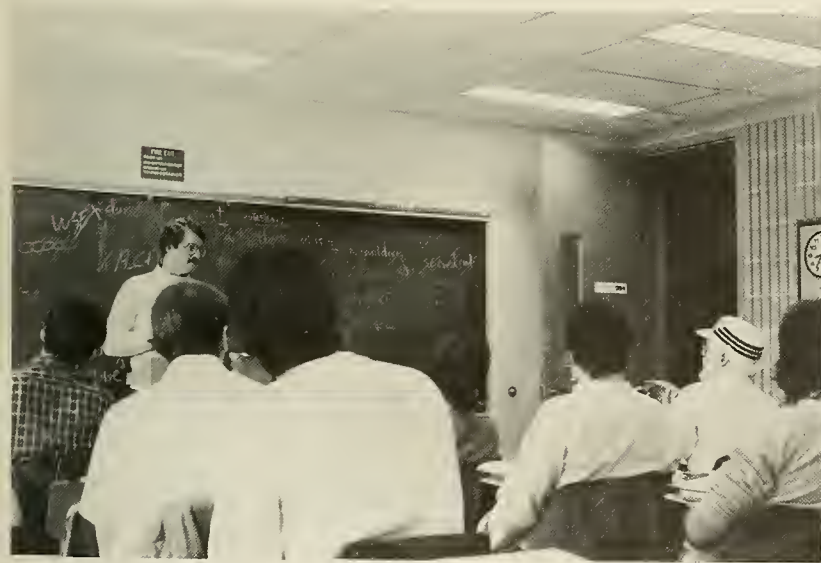

I AM A PART OF ALL THAT I HAVE MET . . .

THAT UNTRAVELED WORLD WHOSE MARGIN FADES FOREVER AND FOREVER WHEN I MOVE.

TO FOLLOW KNOWLEDGE LIKE A SINKING STAR
BEYOND THE UTMOST BOUND OF HUMAN THOUGHT.

An unknown Chinese poet in 500 BC wrote:

"If you are thinking a year ahead, sow seed.
If you are thinking ten years ahead, plant a tree.
If you are thinking one hundred years ahead, educate the people."

We at the Mount have tried our best to do that.

I think it important that you leave here with an understanding of the investment many people have made in you and in Mount Wachusett Community College: your professors, counselors, administrators and staff -- all have made a contribution to your arriving at this juncture.

You will soon pass from the relatively protected corridors of Mount Wachusett Community College to other less protected worlds, and to new responsibilities. I want you to achieve good and hard and difficult and impossible things -- for your own good and personal satisfaction -- but also because you are graduates of Mount Wachusett Community College.

Robert Frost once defined education as something like being able to hang on until you have caught on. Each of you has hung on long enough to catch on, and catch your Associate degree in the process. Please accept my congratulations upon your success.

Dear Graduates:

Once again I say farewell to a fine group of young men and women who just two years ago enrolled at the "Mount."

I congratulate one and all and have fond memories of the past few years. You have ample reason to be proud of the fact that you survived and persevered on this step in life's plan. You are the nineteenth graduating class in the rather short twenty years of the history of the college.

I frequently lament the fact that we are a two year institution because one hardly gets to know you before you move along. In addition, so many of you are labeled "non-traditional" in our current jargon because you did not come to us directly from high school as was the case years ago. Now we have grandmothers, grandfathers, and numerous family members who have gone on to our Alumni ranks.

I bid you Godspeed, with much pride, best wishes, and every confidence that you will make us all extremely proud of your achievements and contributions to society. I hope that all will become active members of the Alumni Association and that our paths will cross frequently in the future. Come back often to see us.

Sincerely yours,

John A. Hogan

A message to the families and friends of today's graduates . . .

The teaching faculty, librarians, and counselors who are members of the Massachusetts Community College Council share your pride and happiness, as your sons and daughters, wives and husbands, brothers and sisters, neighbors, friends, and relatives graduate today.

They richly deserve our praise, because they have worked hard for their degrees.

As their teachers and guides, we have also dedicated a great deal of time and expertise to their education. Unfortunately, we are not receiving commensurate support for our efforts from the college administration.

We have just finished an entire academic year working without a collective bargaining contract. We have not received a raise in two years, while maintaining the dubious honor of being among the lowest-paid community college faculty in the nation.

The primary reason for this situation is the intransigence of the state Board of Regents of Higher Education, and the college presidents who, during 18 months of negotiations, have insisted upon unreasonable increases in our workload (which would be detrimental to quality education), painfully small pay increases, and patronage-style pay raises for a few people selected by the college administration (which, if implemented, would only serve to pit faculty members against each other).

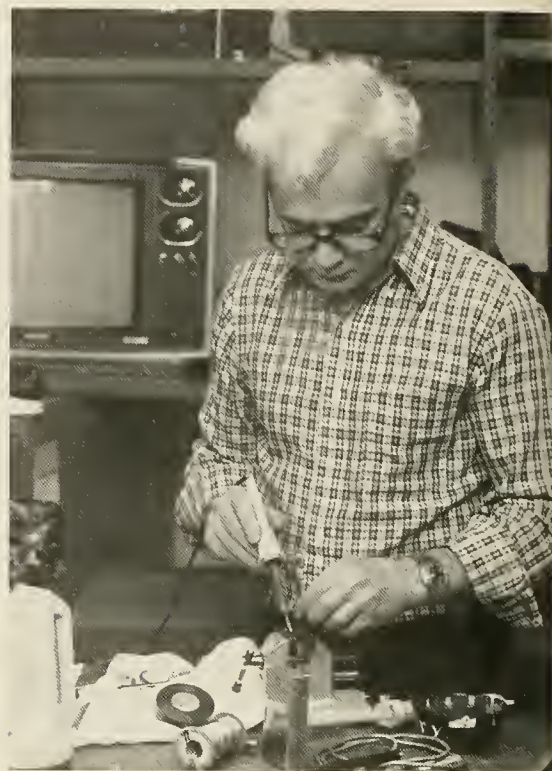

A recent study revealed that the average community college teacher spends more than 50 hours a week teaching, planning, and attending meetings. Most of us either continue our own education or teach "continuing education" courses between semesters in order to improve the quality of education we provide our students, and to supplement our incomes.

The pay for the average Massachusetts community college teacher is less than the starting pay for postal employees.

We urge you to tell your college president, state representative, state senator, and Gov. Dukakis that we deserve better treatment, and that they should instruct the Board of Regents to sign a fair contract with us.

Please: Help us to maintain one of the Commonwealth's most valuable resources -- its system of community colleges.
